To : All Business Unit Heads
Issuing Unit : Oak Drive Ventures, Inc., Executive Office
Memo Title : Prohibition on Borrowing and Lending Between Employees
Issued Date : May 13, 2026

OAK DRIVE
VENTURES, INC.

This Memorandum serves as a statement from the Executive Office regarding its position on the lending and borrowing arrangements (or personal loans) between and among employees.

In the interest of maintaining professionalism within the workplace, protecting strong integrity among its workforce, and preventing situations that may result in conflict, undue pressure, harassment, dependency, and/or disrupting operations in the organization, all forms of personal financial transactions or arrangements between employees, including lending or borrowing of money, personal loan arrangements, investment solicitations, and profit-sharing schemes, are strongly prohibited.

To strictly and consistently implement this directive across all Business Units, the following must be complied with:

1. All Business Unit Heads are hereby mandated TO ISSUE the corresponding internal memorandum or notice, consistent with their respective company policies and internal procedures, within two (2) working days from receipt of this notice. Please ensure that the directive is properly cascaded, implemented, and monitored by division/department/section managers.

2. All employees who are currently engaged in any lending or borrowing arrangement with co-employees or who have knowledge of any existing personal loan arrangements involving co-employees are hereby REQUIRED to immediately report the matter to their respective Human Resources Department within two (2) working days from the release of the internal memo. All disclosures must be handled with appropriate confidentiality.

3. Any disclosures or reported arrangements received shall be endorsed to the respective Business Unit Heads and Human Resources Departments for proper handling and appropriate action.

4. As part of compliance requirements, copies of the issued internal memoranda/notices shall be submitted to the undersigned on or before May 20, 2026.

Non-compliance with the directive, including failure to disclose arrangements that result in workplace issues, complaints, conflicts, operational disruption, or violations of Company policies, shall be dealt with accordingly and may subject the concerned employee(s) to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including sanctions allowable under the Company's Code of Conduct, rules, regulations, and existing policies, subject to due process.

This directive takes effect from the date of issuance and shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise revoked or superseded in writing by Management.
